

Activity Permission Slip

To whom it may concern,

This letter is to inform you that our group is planning a Geocaching Adventure on _____ . Please take note of all the details and information laid out in this permission slip.

What is Geocaching? Geocaching is a real-world, outdoor treasure hunting game using GPS-enabled devices. Participants navigate to a specific set of GPS coordinates and then attempt to find the geocache (container) hidden at that location.

What we will learn:

- STEM & Navigation: Students will learn to use coordinates and understand how satellite technology works.
- Geography: We will be practicing map-reading and orientation skills.
- Environmental Ethics: We will learn about "Leave No Trace" and how to protect our local parks while exploring.

Yours truly, _____
